

Request for Funding Form

West Fargo Packer Backer financial assistance is offered on an as funds are available basis for students, groups or teams participating in qualified events and/or needs. Requests for which assistance may be considered are primarily those that are in addition to the school's regularly scheduled events and/or needs. Such requests may include competitions whereby outstanding participants have been chosen to compete or for groups who have advanced beyond the point where adequate school funding has been provided. Please note that funds will not be granted for food and/or beverage requests. Packer Backers meet the 2nd Monday of every month throughout the school year. Please submit your requests no later than one (1) week prior to the next meeting; requests can be submitted through the WFHS Activities Department. At minimum, one (1) group advisor and one (1) student representative are required to attend the meeting to present the request being made. Groups will be notified the following week of the status of their request.
